

Education Reach and Impact in 2011

The Education Division works to further the League's mission through the design and delivery of educational programs, materials and initiatives.

Since its beginning, over 56 million adults and youth have been impacted by ADL's Education Division programs.

A WORLD OF DIFFERENCE® INSTITUTE

- A CLASSROOM OF DIFFERENCE™ anti-bias programs worked with nearly 11,000 preK-12 educators, administrators and classified staff who reach over 840,000 students. In addition, programs were delivered to over 49,000 elementary and secondary school students, and nearly 2,500 family and community members—totaling over 62,000 participants. Highlights include:

- Bullying and cyberbullying prevention workshops worked with nearly 2,700 educators and administrators, 1,900 family and community members, and over 10,000 elementary and secondary school youth to stop bullying and cyberbullying.
- Bullying prevention assembly programs encouraged over 24,000 elementary and secondary school youth to strive for schools free from bullying by practicing pro-social and ally behavior.
- The Miller Early Childhood Initiative workshops gave over 2,100 early childhood educators and family members the skills to encourage nearly 18,000 children in their care to embrace diversity.
- Peer Training and Peer Leadership Programs trained nearly 4,600 middle and high school students who, in turn, worked with over 546,800 of their peers to take action against prejudice in their schools.

- A CAMPUS OF DIFFERENCE™ training programs helped over 3,100 college students, administrators, faculty and staff develop the skills to combat bigotry and to create more respectful, inclusive college environments.
- A COMMUNITY OF DIFFERENCE™ and A WORKPLACE OF DIFFERENCE® training programs assisted over 3,500 nonprofit, government and corporate employees in developing skills and strategies to work together effectively in a diverse environment.

CONFRONTING ANTI-SEMITISM AND CAMPUS INITIATIVES

- Confronting Anti-Semitism workshops provided over 2,200 Jewish youth, teachers, and family and community members with the skills to combat anti-Semitism.
- The Campus Affairs Department supported over 60 colleges and universities in responding to anti-Israel and anti-Semitic incidents on campus and hosted representatives from 16 colleges and universities on its Campus Leaders Mission to Israel focused on the struggle for peace in the Middle East.

HOLOCAUST EDUCATION AND REMEMBRANCE

- Echoes and Reflections trainings instructed nearly 2,900 educators on how to implement the multimedia curriculum on the Holocaust in their classrooms, reaching an estimated 428,000 students.
- Regional and Advanced Bearing Witness programs provided 90 Catholic school educators, responsible for 13,500 students, with the opportunity to learn practical strategies for teaching students about the Holocaust, anti-Semitism and the changing relationship between the Catholic and Jewish communities.
- The National Youth Leadership Mission brought 110 high school leaders to Washington, DC to learn about the Holocaust and the price of inaction in the face of prejudice, discrimination and hatred.

NO PLACE FOR HATE® INITIATIVES

- No Place For Hate provides a framework that helps schools and communities combat bias, bullying and hate. Since its inception, 1,500 schools and 82 communities have been designated as No Place for Hate®.
